Prenj Mountain, widely considered one of Bosnia and Herzegovina’s most beautiful mountains, is a true heaven for hikers. Still wild, with sharp and elegant peaks, impressive reefs that overlook the entire Herzegovina, it’s proclaimed as most attractive mountain in the country. Prenj is located at the heart of Dinaric Alps, in the northern part of Herzegovina region, and with its numerous demanding peaks over 2000masl, highest being Zelena glava (Green head - 2155 masl), it has been called the “Herzegovinian Alps” by mountaineers.

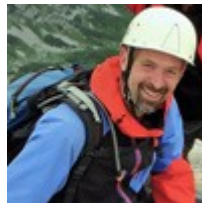

The tour

High mountains in Herzegovina region are ideal for ski touring as they are covered with plenty of snow in winter. This tour starts on Ruiste at 1000 masl from where it leads us pretty soon in to the higher grounds between 1400 and 2000 masl suitable for ski touring. After we check in in to Mountain Hut (1450 masl) to leave the surplus equipment we continue to our ski tour around the beautiful mountain.

In the evening we return to the Mountain Hut for the overnight stay. Next morning we engage on our tour through central part of Prenj (800 ascent) and return to the Mountain Hut on another route later in the afternoon. We head back to Ruiste for a warm dinner with traditional national dishes of Herzegovina and we drive back to Mostar.

Mountains invite you to sharpen your senses 😊

WELCOME!
